Mary Magdalene woke me up to let her out of the house - it's not even dawn yet.

Time to go to meet th
others. We can get most of the anointing done
before the main business of the day.

What was that?
The tomb is open by
some fantastic force.
We passed out.
Time to get away.

We're off - who is going to open the tomb for us?
That stone must weigh at least three tonnes.

The tomb is already open - the stone is on the ground right away from it.

The tomb isn't just open - it's empty. Someone
must have taken the body of Jesus away and we don't know where they have taken him.

I'm off home. This whole thing is far too scary to get involved.
