I've just met Jesus.
He's alive!

Peter's just arrived.
He says he has met
Jesus, and that Jesus is alive. There seems to be some problem;
that's Peter and Mary Magdalene.

There's a sound of a considerable discussion upstairs. Everyone's speaking at once.

Peter has told us that he's met Jesus. I knew that there was something like that when I saw the tomb this morning.

There's a real disagreement now. Most of the disciples don't believe me or Peter, but a few are convinced.

Cleopas and his friend have just come in. Now they say that they have seen Jesus. Why haven't we all met him, if he is really alive?

The disciples are discussing whether Jesus is alive.
Some are very sceptical;
it will take something big to convince them either way.
