The soldiers have just set off with Jesus to take him to be crucified.
He's carrying the
crosspiece for his cross.

The group has gone
round the corner;
I can't see them any more. I'll take Peter to Golgotha, which seems to be where they're going.

The crucifixion is going to happen at Golgotha.
I'm going to tell the other women who came down
with me from Galilee.

I've been grabbed.
Some crucifixion victim is in a bad way and they need someone to carry his cross. I drew the short straw.

We've arrived at Golgotha.
It's organised chaos.
People are milling
round the three victims to be crucified. Two came from somewhere else.

I've visited Mary the mother of Jesus and Salome the mother of John. They know what's happening and seem to be going to look.

The victims have been checked off and they're nailing them to their crosses.
There are two bandits and a carpenter from Galilee.
