

Marcus Crispus - Praetorian guard
@MarcusC

Follow

Wer'e for it now.
We allowed a dead
man to escape.
I'm about to report
what happened;
this is going to end badly for me, but what can I do?

2:58 PM - 4 Apr 2021

20 Retweet 30 Likes

27

20

30

Marcus Crispus - Praetorian guard

@MarcusC

Follow

I'm happier than I was a moment ago. I told the priests what had happened, and they told me to keep quiet
and gave me money.

3:30 PM - 4 Apr 2021

17 Retweet 29 Likes

38

17

29

Press Release

From: The Office of His Holiness, Joseph Caiaphas, High Priest

3:50 PM - 4 Apr 2021

Tomb Robbery

The tomb of Joseph of Arimathea was opened early this morning and the body of Jesus of Nazareth, the notorious blasphemer who had been executed by the Romans on charges of rebellion, was stolen from the tomb.

The tomb was guarded but the body was stolen by the disciples of Jesus while the guards' attention had lapsed.

No search is being carried out for the body, as it is certain that the disciples of Jesus will have concealed it securely.