Pilate's releasing the body to me - Nicodemus says he will join in. I've a tomb near Golgotha - Jesus can lie there.

I have some spices here in the palace, and I bought some more on the way back.
I can start to prepare them
to anoint the body.

Press Release

From: The Governor's Office,
Jerusalem

4:30 PM - 2 Apr 2021

Executions Completed

SPQR

The executions of three criminals were completed today at Golgotha. Those executed were two bandits and Jesus of Nazareth, self-styled “King of the Jews”, considered by many to be a prophet.

The death of Jesus was certified shortly after the ninth hour and the deaths of the other two bandits about half an hour later. The bodies have been removed from their crosses and buried. No dead bodies are being left on crosses as the Passover is approaching and the Governor does not wish to upset local religious sensibilities.

This marks the end of the trouble caused by these men. It is certain that we will hear no more of Jesus of Nazareth from now on.

It's quite hard to buy
a shroud at this time
on the day before a feast, but I managed it.
Now to arrange to get
the body.

The bodies are on the crosses still - they are all dead, and we have the gruesome task of getting Jesus down.

Nicodemus' men helped a lot. We have the body down now and we'll have him in the grave soon.

The body is in the tomb.
We can go home now
everything is packing
up as sunset nears.
We won't find any spices on sale now.

Now I know exactly where the tomb is I can go back to Salome's house. I can go from there to Golgotha on Sunday morning.

I'm going to have to stop getting the spices ready now; it will be the Sabbath in a few minutes.
