Executions Completed

SPQR

The executions of three criminals were completed today at Golgotha. Those executed were two bandits and Jesus of Nazareth, self-styled “King of the Jews”, considered by many to be a prophet.

The death of Jesus was certified shortly after the ninth hour and the deaths of the other two bandits about half an hour later. The bodies have been removed from their crosses and buried. No dead bodies are being left on crosses as the Passover is approaching and the Governor does not wish to upset local religious sensibilities.

This marks the end of the trouble caused by these men. It is certain that we will hear no more of Jesus of Nazareth from now on.
